AUTHORS Note

Jane Louise Kelley

First a confession, I cheated, Catis is already a hero, sort of. In a netflix show there is a character named Tigres I modeled her design and created a black. Not so sneaky cat-girl person. If you didn't notice in Book 1 Wolverine Woman and Catis are fighting the old Dogfight cat thing. Wolverine woman was modeled after my friend My-la-bata, little different it's a mixture of me & her. I write Mystery, Suspense comics adventure, and heroes are my favorite. My comic insperer is Raina Telemén her comics are funny and spirited. I hope mine are the same.
